YOUTH CAMP 2002

4-9 April

The annual Grace & Truth Youth Camps are designed for young people from age 13 to students at university, particularly those in the Reformed Baptist churches of New Zealand.

AIMS

-  To provide an enjoyable, interesting and stimulating holiday for young people
-  To present the Gospel and encourage young Christians in their walk with Jesus
-  To provide an opportunity for friendships to be formed with young people from other Reformed Baptist churches

LOCATION

The 2002 Camp will again be held at Camp Sladdin, located close to Clevedon village in South Auckland. The extensive grounds merge with native bush, while indoor facilities include dining and recreation halls and bunk rooms.

CAMP FEES & BOOKING

Fees are shown on the booking form; they include accommodation, food and all activities. If transport is required to and/or from the camp please contact us. Those in genuine financial hardship should also contact us as places may be available at a reduced rate.

THE PROGRAMME

The Youth Camps provide a full programme of physical activities as well as various meetings for teaching the Bible and discussion.

A typical day on camp:

- 0800 - Breakfast
- 0900 - Meeting
- 1030 - Activities
- 1800 - Evening Meal
- 1930 - Video/discussion
- 2130 - Supper
- 2200 - Epilogue

ACTIVITIES

A number of activities are planned, including climbing, kayaking, a water confidence course, bush walks and a flying fox. There will also be ample time at the camp for informal games.

Activities will be conducted by qualified and/or experienced leaders.

TEACHING

The morning meetings will be taken by Stephen Turner, Fred Schaumkel and Dafydd Hughes, all of them elders in Reformed Baptist churches in New Zealand. Discussion will also be stimulated by viewing videos aimed at helping the young people to develop discernment and think seriously about Christianity.
